A Divine SONG of praise to G O D, for a
C H I L D, by the Rev. Dr. Watts.

HOW glorious is our heav'nly King,
Who reigns above the sky!

How shall a child presume to sing
His dreadful Majesty!

How great his pow'r is, none can tell,

Nor think how large his grace,

Nor men below, nor saints that dwell

On high before his face.

Nor angels that stand round the Lord,

Can search his secret will:

But they perform his heav'nly word,

And sing his praises still.

Then let me join this holy train,

And my first off'rings bring;

Th' eternal God will not disdain

To hear an infant sing.

My heart resolves, my tongue obeys,

And angels shall rejoice,

To hear their mighty Maker's praise

Sound from a feeble voice.

The CREED

I Be-lieve in God, the Fa-ther, Al-migh-ty, ma-ker of hea-ven and earth: And in Je-sus Christ, his on-ly Son, our Lord; who was conceiv-ed by the Ho-ly Ghost, born of the Vir-gin Ma-ry, suf-fer-ed under Pon-tius Pi-late, was cru-ci-fi-ed dead and bu-ri-ed. He def-cend-ed in-to hell: The third day he a-rose a-gain from the dead: He as-cend-ed into hea-ven, and sit-eth on the right hand of God, the Fa-ther Al-migh-ty: From thence he shall come to judge both the quick and the dead. I be-lieve in the Ho-ly Ghost, the ho-ly ca-tho-lic church, the com-mu-ni-on of saints, the for-give-ness of sins, the re-sur-rec-tion of the bo-dy, and the life e-ver-last-ing. A-MEN.

The Ten Commandments, Exodus XX.

GOD spake all these words, saying, I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

I. Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

II. Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the waters under the earth. Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them, for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquities of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me, and shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain, for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

IV. Remember the Sabbath-day to keep it holy, six days shalt thou labour and do all thy work, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God, in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day, wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath-day and hallowed it.

V. Honour thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt not kill.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house; thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbour's.

Duty of Children towards their Parents.

GOD hath commanded, saying, Honour thy father and thy mother, and whoso curseth father and mother let him die the death. Matth.

xv. 4.

Children obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. Eph. vi. 1.

A CRADLE HYMN, By Dr. WATTS.

Hush, my dear, lie still and slumber,
 Holy angels guard thy bed,
 Heavenly blessings without number
 Gently falling on thy head.

Sleep, my babe, thy food and raiment,
 House and home thy friends provide,

And without thy care and payment,

All thy wants are well supply'd.

How much better thou'rt attended,

Than the son of God could be,

When from heaven he descended,

And became a child like thee.

Soft and easy is thy cradle,

Coarse and hard thy Saviour lay,

When his birth-place was a stable,

And his softest bed was hay.

Blessed babe! what glorious features!

Spotless fair divinely bright;

Must he dwell with brutal creatures!

How could angels bear the sight?

Was there nothing but a manger,

Cursed sinners could afford.

To receive the heav'nly stranger?

Did they thus affront the Lord!

Soft, my child, I did not chide thee,

Tho' my song might sound too hard.

'Tis thy mother sits besides thee,

And her arms shall be thy guard.

Yet to read the shameful story,

How the Jews abus'd their King,

How they serv'd the Lord of glory,

Makes me angry while I sing.

See the kinder, shepherds round him,

Telling wonders from the sky;

There they sought him, there they found him,

With his virgin mother by.

See the lovely babe a-dressing;

Lovely infant how he smil'd?

When he wept the mother's blessing

Sooth'd and hush'd the holy child.

Lo! he slumbers in his manger,

Where the horned oxen fed;

Peace, my darling, here's no danger.

Here's no oxen near thy bed.

'Twas to save thee, child, from dying,

Save my dear from burning flame,

Bitter groans and endless crying,
 That thy blest'd Redeemer came.
 May'st thou live to know and fear him,
 Trust and love him all thy days!
 Then go dwell for ever near him,
 See his face, and sing his praise.
 I could give thee thousand kisses,
 Hoping what I most desire;
 Not a mother's fondest wishes,
 Can to greater joy aspire.

NOW I lay me down to sleep,
 I pray thee, Lord, my soul to keep;
 If I should die before I wake,
 I pray thee, Lord, my soul to take.
 Good Children must

Fear God all day,	Love Christ always,
Parents obey,	In secret pray,
No false thing say,	Mind little play,
By no sin stray,	Make no delay,

In doing good.

Awake, arise, behold thou hast,
 Thy life, a leaf, thy breath, a blast;
 At night lie down prepar'd to have
 Thy sleep, thy death, thy bed, thy grave.

MR. JOHN ROGERS, minister of the gospel in London, was the first martyr in Queen MARY'S reign, and was burnt at Smithfield, February the fourteenth, 1554. His wife, with nine small children, and one at her breast, following him to the stake; with which sorrowful sight he was not in the least daunted, but with wonderful patience, died courageously for the gospel of JESUS CHRIST.

Some few days before his death, he wrote the following Advice to his Children.

Give ear, my children, to my words,
 Whom God hath dearly bought,
 Lay up his laws within your hearts,
 And print them in your thought.
 I leave you here a little book,
 For you to look upon,
 That you may see your father's face,
 When he is dead and gone.
 Who for the hope of heavenly things,
 While he did here remain,
 Gave over all his golden years
 To prison and to pain.
 Where I among my iron bands,
 Enclosed in the dark,
 Not many days before my death,
 Compos'd this little work:
 And for example to your youth,
 To whom I wish all good,
 I send you here God's perfect truth,
 And seal it with my blood.

To you my heirs of earthly things,
 Whom I do leave behind,
 That you may read and understand
 And keep it in your mind :
 That as you have been heirs of that
 Which once shall wear away,
 You also may possess the part,
 Which never shall decay.
 Keep always God before your eyes,
 With all your whole intent,
 Commit no sin in any wise,
 Keep his commandement.
 Abhor that arrant whore of Rome,
 And all her blasphemies,
 And drink not of her cursed cup,
 Obey not her decrees.
 Give honour to your mother dear,
 Remember well her pain,
 And recompence her in her age,
 With the like love again ;
 Be always ready for her help,
 And let her not decay,
 Remember well your father all,
 Who should have been your stay.

Give of your portion to the poor.

As riches doth arise,

And from the needy, naked soul

Turn not away your eyes.

For he that doth not hear the cry,

Of those that stand in need,

Shall cry himself and not be heard,

When he does hope to speed.

If God hath given you increase

And blessed well your store,

Remember you were put in trust,

And should relieve the poor.

Beware of foul and filthy lusts,

Let such things have no place,

Keep clean your vessels in the LORD,

That he may you embrace.

Ye are the Temples of the LORD,

For you are dearly bought,

And they that do defile the same,

Shall surely come to nought.

Be never proud by any means,

Build not your house too high,

But always have before your eyes,

That you were born to die.

Defraud not him that hired is
 Your labour to sustain,
 And pay him still without delay,
 His wages for his pain :
 And as you would that other men
 Against you should proceed,
 Do you the same to them again,
 When they do stand in need,
 Impart your portion to the poor,
 In money and in meat,
 And send the feeble fainting soul,
 Of that which you do eat.
 Ask counsel always of the wise,
 Give ear unto the end,
 And ne'er refuse the sweet rebuke
 Of him that is your friend.
 Be always thankful to the Lord,
 With prayer and with praise,
 Begging of him to bless your work,
 And to direct your ways.
 Seek first, I say, the living God,
 And always him adore,
 And then be sure that he will bless,
 Your basket and your store.

And I beseech Almighty God
 Replenish you with grace,
 That I meet you in the heav'ns,
 And see you face to face.
 And tho' the fire my body burn,
 Contrary to my kind,
 That I cannot enjoy your love,
 According to my mind.
 Yet I do hope that w^h the heav'ns
 Shall vanish like a scroll,
 I shall you see in perfect shape
 In body and in soul.
 And that I may enjoy your love,
 And you enjoy the land,
 I do beseech the living LORD,
 To hold you in his hand.
 Tho' here my body be adjudg'd
 In flaming fire to fry ;
 My soul, I trust, will straight ascend
 To live with God on high.
 What tho' this carcase smart a while,
 What tho' this life decay ?
 My soul, I hope, will be with God,
 And live with him for ay.

I know I am a sinner born,
 From the original,
 And that I do deserve to die,
 By my forefather's fall.
 But thro' our Saviour's precious blood,
 Which on the cross was spilt,
 Who freely offer'd up his life,
 To save our souls from guilt ;
 I hope redemption I shall have,
 And all that in him trust,
 When I shall see him face to face,
 And live among the just.
 Why then should I fear death's grim look
 Since Christ for me did die ;
 For King and Caesar, rich and poor,
 The force of death must try.
 When I am chained to a stake,
 And faggots gird me round,
 Then pray the Lord my soul in heav'n,
 May be with glory crown'd.
 Come, welcome death, the end of fears,
 I am prepar'd to die,
 Those earthly flames will send my soul
 Up to the LORD on high.

Farewel my children to the world,
 Where you must yet remain,
 The LORD of hosts be your defence,
 'Till we do meet again.

Farewel my true and loving wife,
 My children and my friends,
 I hope in heav'n to see you all,
 When all things have their ends.

If you go on to serve the LORD,
 As you have now begun,
 You shall walk safely all your days,
 Untill your life be done.

GOD grant you so to end your days,
 As he shall think it best,
 That I may meet you in the heav'ns,
 Where I do hope to rest.

Agreed upon by the Reverend Assembly of DIVINES at Westminster.

Q *W*HAT is the chief end of man?

and to enjoy him for ever.

Q. What rule hath God given to direct us how changeable in his being, wisdom, power, holiness, justice, goodness, and truth.

Q. Are there more gods than one?

A. There is but one only, the living and true God.

Q. How many persons are there in the Godhead?

A. There are three persons in the Godhead, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost; and these three are one God, the same in substance, equal in power and glory.

Q. What are the decrees of God?

A. The decrees of God are his eternal purpose, according to the counsel of his will, whereby, for his own glory, he hath fore-ordained whatsoever comes to pass.

Q. How doth God execute his decrees?

A. Sin is any want of conformity unto, or transgression of, the law of God.

Q. What was the sin whereby our first parents fell from the estate wherein they were created?

A. The sin whereby our first parents fell from the estate wherein they were created, was their eating the forbidden fruit.

Q. Did all mankind fall in Adam's first transgression?

A. The covenant being made with Adam, not only for himself, but for his posterity, all mankind descending from him by ordinary generation, sinned in him, and fell with him in his first transgression.

Q. Into what estate did the fall bring mankind?

A. The fall brought mankind into an estate of sin and misery.

Q. Wherein consists the sinfulness of that estate wherinto man fell?

A. The sinfulness of that estate wherinto man fell, consists in the guilt of Adam's first sin, the want of original righteousness, and the corruption of his whole nature, which is commonly called original sin, together with all actual transgressions which proceed from it.

Q. What is the misery of that estate wherinto man fell?

A. All mankind by their fall lost communion with God, are under his wrath and curse, and so made liable to all the miseries in this life, to death itself, and to the pains of hell for ever.

Q. Did God leave all mankind to perish in the estate of sin and misery?

Q. Who is the Redeemer of God's elect?

A. The only Redeemer of God's elect, is the Lord Jesus Christ, who being the eternal Son of God, became man, and so was and continueth to be God and man in two distinct natures, and one person for ever.

Q. How did Christ, being the Son of God, become man?

A. Christ executeth the office of a prophet, in revealing to us by his word and Spirit, the will of God for our salvation.

Q. How doth Christ execute the office of a priest?

A. Christ executeth the office of a priest, in his once offering up of himself a sacrifice to satisfy divine justice and reconcile us to God, and in making continual intercession for us.

Q. How doth Christ execute the office of a king?

A. Christ executeth the office of a king, in subduing us to himself, in ruling and defending us, and in restraining and conquering all his and our enemies.

Q. Wherein did Christ's humiliation consist?

A. Christ's humiliation consisted in his being born, and that in a low condition, made under the law, undergoing the miseries of this life, the wrath of God, and the cursed death of the cross; in being buried, and continuing under the power of death for a time.

Q. Wherein consisteth Christ's exaltation?

A. Christ's exaltation consisteth in his rising again from the dead on the third day, in ascending up into heaven, in sitting at the right-hand of God the Father, and in coming to judge the world at the last day.

Q. What goodnes and learning makes the child a man, so piety makes him an angel. Master Tommy Fido not only loved his book, because it made him wiser, but because it made him better too. He loved every body, and could not see a stranger hurt without feeling what he suffered, without pitying him, and wishing he could help him. He loved his pappa and mamma, his brothers and sisters, with a dearer affection; he learnt his duty to God, thanked him for his goodness, and was glad that he had not made him a horse or a cow, but had given him sense enough to know his duty; and every day, when he said his prayers, thanked God for making him a little man. One day he went to church, he minded what the parson said, and when he came home, asked his pappa if God loved him; his pappa said, Yes, my dear. O!

 my dear pappa said he, I am glad to hear it:
 what a charming thing is it to have God my friend! then nothing can hurt me: I am sure I will love him as well as ever I can. Thus he every day grew wiser and better. Every body was pleased with him, he had many friends, the poor blessed him, and every one strove to make him happy.

Description of a good Boy.

A Good boy is dutiful to his father and mother, obedient to his master, and loving to all his play-fellows. He is diligent in learning his book and takes a pleasure in improving himself in every thing that is worthy of praise: He rises early in the morning, makes himself clean and decent, and says his prayers. If he has done a fault he confesses it, and is sorry for it; and scorns to tell a lie, though he might by that means conceal it. He loves to hear a good advice, is thankful to those that give it him, and always follows it. He never swears, or calls names or uses any ill words to his companions. He is never peevish and fretful, but always chearful and good-humoured. He scorns to steal or pilfer any thing from his play-fellows; and would rather suffer wrong, than do wrong to any of them. He is always ready to answer, when he is ask'd a question, to do what he is bid, and to mind what is said to him. He is not a wrangler, nor quarrellsome, and keeps himself out of all kinds of mischief which other boys run into. by this means he becomes as he grows up a man of sense and virtue; he is beloved and respected by all that know him; he lives in the world with credit and reputation, and when he dies, is lamented by all his acquaintance.

A bad Boy described.

A Bad boy is undutiful to his father and mother, disobedient and stubborn to his master, and ill-natured to his play-fellows. He hates his book, and takes no pleasure in improving himself in any thing. He is sleepy and slothful in a morning, too idle to clean himself, and too wicked to say his prayers. He is always in mischief, and when he has done a fault, will tell twenty lies in hopes to clear himself, which is only making bad worse. He hates that any body should give him good advice, and when they are out of sight he will laugh at them. He swears, and wrangles, and quarrels with his companions, and is always in some dispute or other. He will steal whatever comes in his way; and if he is not caught, thinks it no crime; not considering that God sees whatever he does. He is frequently out of humour, and fullen and obstinate, so that he will neither do what he is bid, nor answer any question that is asked at him. In short, he neglects every thing that he should learn, and minds nothing but play or mischief, by which means he becomes, as he grows up, a confirmed blockhead, incapable of any thing but wickedness or folly, despised by all men of sense and virtue, and generally dies a beggar.

A G U R ' s P R A Y E R .

REMOVE far from me vanities and lies; give me neither poverty nor riches, feed me with food convenient for me: lest I be full and deny thee, and say, Who is the Lord? Or lest I be poor and steal, and take the Name of God in vain.

A DIALOGUE

BETWEEN

CHRIST, A YOUTH, AND THE DEVIL.

YOUTH.

THose days which God to me doth send,
 In pleasure I'm resolv'd to spend ;
 Like as the birds i' th' lovely spring,
 Sit chirping on the boughs and sing ;
 Who straining forth those warbling notes,
 Do make sweet music in their throats.
 So I resolve in this my prime,
 In sport and play to spend my time ;
 Sorrow and grief I'll put away,
 Such things agree not with my day,
 From clouds my morning shall be free,
 And nought on earth shall trouble me,
 I will embrace each sweet delight
 This earth affords me, day and night ;
 Though parents grieve, and me correct,
 Yet I their counsel will reject.

E

D E V I L.

The resolution which you take,
 Sweet youth, it doth me merry make.
 If thou my counsel wilt embrace,
 And shun the ways of truth and grace,
 And learn to lie, to curse and swear,
 And be as proud as any are,
 And with thy brothers wilt fall out,
 And sisters with vile language flout ;
 Yea, fight and scratch, and also bite,
 Then I in thee will take delight.
 If thou wilt but be rul'd by me,
 An artist thou shalt quickly be,
 In all my ways, which lovely are,
 There's few with thee who shall compare :
 Thy parents always disobey ;
 Don't mind at all what they do say ;
 And also proud and fullen be,
 And thou shalt be a child for me.
 When others read be thou at play :
 Think not on God, don't mind to pray ;
 Nor be thou such a silly fool,
 To mind thy book, or go to school ;

But play the truant ; fear not I
 Will straight-way help thee to a lie ;
 Which will excuse thee for the same,
 From being whipt, and from all blame ;
 Come, bow to me, uphold my crown,
 And I'll thee raise to high renown.

Y O U T H.

These motions I will cleave unto,
 And let all other counsel go ;
 My heart against my parents now
 Shall harden'd be, and will not bow,
 I won't submit at all to them,
 But all good counsel will condemn ;
 And what I list, that do will I,
 And stubborn be continually.

C H R I S T.

Wilt thou, O youth ; make such a choice,
 And thus obey the devil's voice ?
 Curst sinful ways wilt thou embrace,
 And hate the ways of truth and grace ?
 Wilt thou to me a rebel prove
 And from thy parents quite remove
 Thy heart also ? then shalt thou see,
 What will ere long become of thee.

Come, think on God, who did thee make,
 And at his presence dread and quake.
 Remember him now in thy youth,
 And let thy soul take hold of truth ;
 The devil and his ways defy,
 Believe him not, he doth but lie ;
 His ways seem sweet, but youth, beware,
 He for thy soul hath laid a snare.
 His sweet will unto sower turn,
 If in those ways thou still wilt run,
 He will thee into pieces tear
 Like lions which most hungry are.
 Grant me thy heart, thy folly leave,
 And from this lion I'll thee save ;
 And thou shalt have sweet joy from me,
 Which will last to eternity.

Y O U T H.

My heart shall cheer me in my youth,
 I'll have my frolicks in good truth ;
 Whate'er seems lovely in mine eye,
 Myself I cannot it deny.
 In mine own ways I still will walk,
 And take delight among young folk,

Who spend their days in joy and mirth ;
 Nothing like that while I'm on earth !
 Thy ways, O Christ ! are not for me,
 They with my age do not agree ;
 If I unto thy laws should cleave,
 No more good days then should I have.

C H R I S T.

Wouldst thou live long and good days see,
 Refrain from all iniquity :
 True good alone doth from me flow,
 It can't be had in things below.
 Are not my ways, O youth ! for thee ?
 Then thou shalt never happy be ;
 Nor ever shall thy soul obtain
 True good while thou dost here remain.

Y O U T H.

To thee, O Christ ! I'll not adhere ;
 What thou speak'st of, does not appear
 Lovely to me : I cannot find,
 'Tis good to set or place my mind
 On ways whence many sorrows spring,
 And to the flesh such crosses bring.

Don't trouble me, I must fulfil
My fleshly mind, and have my will.

C H R I S T.

Unto thyself then I'll thee leave,
That Satan may thee wholly have;
Thy heart in sin shall harden'd be,
And blinded in iniquity,
And then in wrath I'll cut thee down,
Like as the grass and flow'rs are mown;
And, to thy woe, thou shalt espy
Childhood and youth are vanity;
For all such things I'll make thee know,
To judgment thou shalt come also.
In hell at last thy soul must burn,
When thou thy sinful race hast run.
Consider this, think on thy end,
Lest God do thee in pieces rend.

Y O U T H.

Amazed, Lord! I now begin,
O help me, and I'll leave my sin,
I tremble, and do greatly fear,
To think upon what I do hear.

Lord! I religious now will be,
And I'll from Satan turn to thee?

D E V I L.

Nay foolish youth, don't change thy mind,
Unto such thoughts be not inclin'd,
Come cheer thy heart, rouse up, be glad;
There is no hell; why art thou sad?
Eat, drink, be merry with thy friend,
For when thou diest that's thy end.

Y O U T H.

Such thoughts as these I can't receive,
Because God's word I do believe:
None shall in this destroy my faith,
Nor do I mind what Satan saith.

D E V I L.

Although to thee herein I yield,
Yet I ere long shall win the field,
That there's a heav'n I can't deny,
Yea, and a hell of misery;
That heaven is a lovely place,
I can't deny, 'tis a clear case;

And easy 'tis for to come there,
 Therefore take thou no further care,
 All human laws do thou observe;
 And from old customs never swerve;
 Do not oppose what great men say,
 And thou shalt never go astray.
 Thou may'st be drunk, and swear, and curse,
 And sinners like thee ne'er the worse:
 At any time thou may'st repent:
 'Twill serve when all thy days are spent.

C H R I S T.

Take heed, or else thou art undone;
 These thoughts be from the wicked one.
 Narrow's the way that leads to life,
 Who walk therein do meet with strife:
 Few shall be sav'd, as thou shalt know,
 But many to destruction go.
 If righteous ones scarce saved be,
 What will at last become of thee?
 Oh! don't reject my precious call;
 Lest suddenly in hell thou fall;
 Unless that thou converted be,
 God's kingdom thou shalt never see.

YOUTH.

Lord, I am now at a great stand:
 If I should yield to thy command,
 My com'rades would me much deride
 And never more with me abide,
 Moreover this I also know.
 Thou canst at last great mercy show.
 When I am old, and pleasure's gone,
 Then what thou say'st I'll think upon.

CHRIST.

Nay hold, vain youth, thy time is short;
 I'll have thy breath, I'll end thy sport;
 Thou shalt not live till thou art old,
 Since thou in sin are grown so bold;
 I, in thy youth, grim death will send,
 And all thy sports put to an end.

YOUTH.

I am too young, alas, to die!
 Let death some old grey head espy;
 O spare me and I will amend,
 And with thy grace my soul befriend;
 Or else I am undone, alas;
 For I am in a woful case.

(74)

CHRIST.

When I did call, Thou wouldst not hear,
But didst to me turn a deaf ear;
And now in thy calamity,
I will not mind nor hear thy cry;
Thy day is past, begone from me,
Thou who didst love iniquity
Above thy soul or Saviour dear,
Who on the cross great pain did bear.
My mercy thou didst much abuse,
And good counsel didst refuse;
Justice will therefore vengeance take,
And thee a sad example make.

YOUTH.

O! spare me, Lord; forbear thy hand;
Don't cut me off, who trembling stand;
Begging for mercy at thy door;
O! let me have but one year more.

CHRIST.

If thou some longer time should live,
Thou wouldst again to folly cleave;
Therefore to thee I will not give
One day on earth longer to live.

D E A T H.

I am come (Youth) to fetch thy breath,
And carry thee to th' shades of death;
No pity on thee I can show,
Thou hast thy God offended so.
Thy soul and body I'll divide;
Thy body in the grave I'll hide;
And thy dear soul in hell must be
With devils to eternity.

Thus ends the days of woful youth,
Who won't obey nor mind the truth;
Nor hearken to what preachers say,
But do their parents disobey.
They in their youth shall go to hell,
Under eternal wrath to dwell;
And shall not leave out half their days,
For cleaving unto sinful ways.

A short prayer to be used every morning.

O Lord our heavenly Father, almighty and everlasting God, I most humbly thank thee, for thy great mercy and goodness, in preserving and keeping me from all perils and dangers of this night past, and bringing me safely to the beginning of this day; defend me, O Lord, in the same, with thy mighty power: and grant, that this day I may fall into no sin, neither run into any danger, but that all my doings may be ordered by thy governance, to do always that which is righteous in thy sight, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A short prayer to be used every evening.

O Lord God, I beseech thee, of thy fatherly goodness and mercy, to pardon all my offences, which in ~~thought, word, or deed~~, I have this day committed against thee, and thy holy law. And now, Lord, since the night is upon me, and I am to take my rest, I pray thee, to lighten my eyes, that I sleep not in death: let not my bed prove my grave, but so by the wings of thy mercy protect me, that I may rest from all terrors of darkness; that when I shall awake I may bless thy great and glorious name, and study to serve thee in the duties of the day following, that thou mayest be still my God, and I thy servant. Grant this for Jesus Christ's sake, to whom, with thee, and the holy Ghost be given, as most due, all honour, and glory, now and for evermore. Amen.

OUR days begin with trouble here,
 Our life is but a span;
 And cruel death is always near,
 So frail a thing is man.
 Then sow the seeds of grace whilst young;
 That when thou com'st to die,
 Thou may'st sing that triumphant song,
Death where's thy victory.
